The primary goal of the Institute as stated in the college's catalog:

Interior Designers Institute is a boutique college, specializing in teaching interior design and interior architecture. The college's specialized curriculum offers each student a personalized education with student-focused faculty who love teaching. IDI's goal is to be a producer of interior design graduates who become some of the most well-know and successful designers in the country.

The philosophy of the program as endorsed by most major interior design associations:

"Interior Design includes a scope of services performed by a professional design practitioner, qualified by means of EDUCATION, EXPERIENCE, and EXAMINATION, to protect and enhance the life, health, safety and welfare of the public."

Additional* goals *of the program as conceived by the faculty, Program Advisory Committee, alumni and other practicing design professionals:

- Provide students with an education that enables them to easily enter the interior design profession as an entry-level designer.
- Enable students to design spaces for a diversified community with varying cultures, physical capabilities and economic backgrounds.
- Understand the importance of professional ethics and integrity as an interior designer as well as contribute to the community utilizing their skills and talents.
- Teach students the technical, analytical, conceptual and communication skills required of designers in the design profession.
- Create a learning environment that fosters individuality, creativity and a motivation to succeed.
