DIVERSITY STATEMENT

Interior Designers Institute endeavors to enhance the educational experience of its students by supporting and creating a diverse design community. In all areas of the college's operations such as recruitment and admission, exposure to diverse faculty, creating curriculum that increases awareness of diversity and other learning opportunities, the college has strived to welcome and embrace diversity. The college strives to provide learning opportunities and experiences that encourage students to consider design in the widest possible context and to understand the student's role as professional interior designers of the future on how to contribute positively to society in improving their community, nation and the current and future condition of the world.

STUDENT DISABILITY SERVICES

Interior Designers Institute provides reasonable accommodation to students with disabilities in compliance with State and federal legislation including Sections 504 and 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Students who are in need of accommodations should contact Cynthia Amaral, Student Services, for more information and further advisement. Interior Designers Institute does not have a CTP Program for students with intellectual disabilities.
